Book

The Pacific Northwest Garden Tour

A new book that has just come out highlights our Evergreen Arboretum & Gardens. The Pacific Northwest Garden Tour by Donald Olson, "...cites the imaginative mix of trees, plants and sculptures at the Evergreen Arboretum & Gardens and its surprising sophistication as something one would expect to find in a professionally designed and maintained private estate. Yet this fifty-one year old public garden has been both created and maintained by a dedicated cadre of volunteers and Board members who work with local government to keep it relevant and inspiring. Olson marvels at the spirit of ongoing adventure that exists in the Board's ambitious plans to complete the development of the south end property," Libby Soden said in a recent press release by the Evergreen Arboretum and Gardens Foundation.

This new book can be purchased online ordered directly at <http://www.timberpress.com/books> or on Amazon.com.
