Addiction forum stories, materials, now available online

EVERETT – The City of Everett recently hosted an addiction forum as part of our Beyond the Streets series. A panel of experts joined Mayor Ray Stephanson to discuss all aspects of the complex challenge of drug addiction, as well as the innovative ways that communities like Everett are trying to address the issue.

If you missed the event, or want to learn more about the discussion and panelists, materials and media from the forum are now available online, including biographies of the speakers, a recap from the Everett Herald, and the Beyond the Streets: Addiction video, which captures the stories of several Everett community members as they talk about struggling though, and overcoming, opioid addiction.

The full-length video of the forum, with a Q&A session following panelist presentations, as well as individual stories of those featured in the video, will be coming soon to the City's website, everettwa.gov/BTSAddiction.
