LOW-INCOME ASSISTANCE

The City of Everett has partnered with Catholic Community Services (CCS) to administer the city's water utility low-income assistance program for in-city, residential customers. CCS will evaluate customer applications and provide customers with referrals for other services, as appropriate. Water customers who are at imminent risk of water service disconnection should call the Everett Utilities (Water) Assistance Program line at 425-374-6394. CCS staff are available Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, at the 1918 Everett Avenue location for in-person and telephone inquiries. To qualify for the assistance program, residential customers must:

- Live within the city limits
- Have a direct water service connection
- Have received a disconnection notice
- Have a total annual household income less than or equal to 200 percent of the federal poverty level.

The assistance program offers qualifying customers up to $500 a year toward their utility payments. Customers are able to apply each calendar year as necessary. There is no disability or age requirement for this program, and customers do not need to own their property to qualify.
