Plan for street closures and delays, for Officer Dan Rocha's memorial Monday, April 4

EVERETT, Wash. – Expect street closures and traffic delays on Monday, April 4 for the memorial service for Officer Dan Rocha. The memorial will be held on Monday, April 4 at 1 p.m. at, Angel of the Winds Arena located at 2000 Hewitt Ave, Everett WA 98201. The service will be open to the public and the doors open at noon.

A procession will precede Officer Rocha's memorial service. The procession will significantly affect traffic along its path from approximately 10:30 a.m. until approximately noon. Road closures around the arena will also be in place on Sunday, April 3 and Monday, April 4.

The procession will start at 1302 SE Everett Mall Way shortly after 11 a.m. and will travel westbound on SE Everett Mall Way to Evergreen Way. It will then travel northbound on Evergreen Way and stay on northbound Rucker Avenue until it reaches downtown. Once downtown, various parts of the procession will break off into different downtown streets, heading to the Angel of the Winds Arena.

If the community would like to show their support, we encourage them to line the streets along SE Everett Mall Way, Evergreen Way, and Rucker Ave.
