

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 14, 2022

CONTACT:

Rick Steltenpohl, Eventuris, 509-994-6677, stelt@eventuris.net

Julio Cortes, City of Everett, 425-320-9147, jcortes@everettwa.gov

Team registration open through July 1 for Everett 3on3 Basketball Tournament, presented by Boeing

EVERETT, Wash. – The streets of downtown Everett will be transformed this July 9 and 10 with the tipoff of the new Everett 3on3 Basketball Tournament. Teams of all ages and abilities can register through July 1 to participate in the tournament.

Each team will be scheduled for at least three games. Participants can learn more and register their team, or sign up to volunteer, at everett3on3.net.

The event will include contests, food trucks and lots of fun activities for spectators of all ages. The McClain Insurance Slam Dunk Contest will take place on Boeing Center Court and attendees can participate in the Funko 3 Point Shot Contest and Everett Downtown Storage Skills Challenge. The event is free for spectators and all are encouraged to attend.

Downtown Everett will be transformed to accommodate 40 basketball courts. The courts will be set up in the middle of Colby Avenue between Pacific and Everett avenues, and along Wetmore Avenue between Hewitt and Everett avenues.

The tournament, presented by Boeing, is a joint effort between Eventuris and the City of Everett.

For more information about the tournament, visit everett3on3.net

###

About Eventuris

Eventuris is a Washington special events company dedicated to creating, organizing, and operating memorable basketball events. They have worked with iconic organizations such as the NBA, NBA G League, Portland Trail Blazers, Chicago Bulls, AEG and Bleacher Report.