Midnight Shooting in North Everett Leaves One Dead, Suspect in Custody

EVERETT, WA – Major Crimes detectives are investigating an incident that resulted in a shooting, leaving a male in his 30s dead.

Right around midnight on November 22nd, dispatch received a 911 call of a male having been shot in front of a residence in the 2000 block of 26th St.

When officers arrived on the scene, they found the male victim, who had an apparent gunshot wound, in the street in front of a residence. Officers rendered aid and called for medics, but the male succumbed to his injuries.

The suspect, a male in his 50s, was still on scene when officers arrived and was taken into custody. The male was later booked into the Snohomish County Jail on one count of Murder in the 2nd Degree.

A preliminary investigation revealed the two males were known to one another, but the nature of their relationship is still under investigation.

Major Crimes detectives are still investigating the incident. There is no evidence to suggest any outstanding suspects.
